

Career of the Month: Counsellor

Minimum qualifications

a postgraduate degree

Typical salary (with experience)

£25 – 40k

Competition for places

Low

Demand for this role

Medium

Counsellors listen to what their clients say and ask questions in response, to help them explore, talk about and eventually resolve their problems.

Useful skills and qualities:

Inquisitive	A good problem solver
A good communicator	Full of initiative
Happy working alone	Caring
A good negotiator

Related interests:

Sciences

Things to consider

Rewarding

The work can be very rewarding.

Stressful aspects

Despite the work being rewarding, it can also be highly stressful.

Potential for knock-backs

You must be able to take constructive criticism from an experienced counselling worker, therapist or psychoanalyst – both during and after completing training.

Heavy responsibility

Some clients may become dependent on therapy or analysis sessions and will have to be carefully assisted to refocus.

Little progression opportunity

Counselling units tend to be flat structures with not much room for promotion.

Learn about more careers at <https://indigo.careers/>