

Career of the Month: TV, Film & Radio Producer

Minimum qualifications

An undergraduate degree

Typical salary (with experience)

£20 – 45k

Competition for places

High

Demand for this role

Medium

A producer develops ideas, employs key team members, has creative input, gets involved in casting decisions and script editing, and generally oversees the complete production.

Useful skills and qualities:

Highly motivated

Creative

A team player

A good negotiator

A good problem solver

A good communicator

Full of initiative

A natural leader

Related interests:

TV, Radio & Performing Arts

Things to consider

Rewarding

You will have the satisfaction of seeing the results of your work in the public domain.

Relocation may be necessary

Demand is highest in the south east or in big cities.

Irregular work/job insecurity

Producers are often employed on a freelance or contract basis.

Exciting projects/opportunities

You may get to work on projects that receive awards or critical acclaim.

High-profile clients

If you work on successful, high-budget productions it is likely you will have interaction with well know personalities.

Learn about more careers at <https://indigo.careers/>