

Career of the Month: Entrepreneur

Minimum qualifications

an undergraduate degree

Typical salary (with experience)

£10 – 50k

Competition for places

High

Demand for this role

Medium

You will develop a business plan for your new idea or invention which will involve undertaking extensive market research. You will need to acquire resources including securing financial support.

Useful skills and qualities:

Highly motivated

A good problem solver

Confident

A good communicator

Happy working alone

A good negotiator

Related interests:

Business

Media & Internet

Things to consider

Can run your own business

As you will be self-employed, you will have the flexibility to choose your hours of work.

High starting costs

Start-up costs can be high and it is common for entrepreneurs to use their personal savings to help fund their venture.

Irregular work/job insecurity

Starting a new business venture is a big risk. You must be prepared to deal with the consequences and learn from any mistakes.

Rewarding

Building your own business from scratch can be a very rewarding experience.

Learn about more careers at <https://indigo.careers/>