

Career of the Month: Graphic Designer

Minimum qualifications

an undergraduate degree

Typical salary (with experience)

£15 – 25k

Competition for places

High

Demand for this role

Medium

Graphic designers produce original images and designs for use in publications and other materials such as leaflets, brochures, websites, logos and stationery.

Useful skills and qualities:

Highly motivated

Creative

Full of initiative

Practical

Related interests:

Arts & Crafts

Media & Internet

Words & Writing

Things to consider

Rewarding

Creating original work and seeing your ideas being used in the public eye is satisfying.

Very competitive

Competition is becoming increasingly fierce as the number of available qualifications in this field rises.

Exciting projects/opportunities

If you are highly successful you could have the chance to re-brand household names and logos.

Some work outside regular hours

You will have to work overtime to complete projects to the client's deadline.

Difficult people

You may have to work with clients who have exacting specifications.

Learn about more careers at <https://indigo.careers/>