

Career of the Month: Aerospace Engineer

Minimum qualifications

an undergraduate degree

Typical salary
(with experience)

£25-35K

Competition for places

Medium

Demand for this role

High

Aerospace engineers research, design and manufacture space vehicles, satellites, missiles and aircrafts.

Related interests:

Sciences

Driving

Useful skills and qualities:

Analytical

Highly motivated

Technically minded

A good problem solver

Full of initiative

Happy working alone

Practical

Money motivated

Things to consider

Long hours/overtime

You may have to work long hours, evenings and weekends.

Stressful deadlines/target-driven

Stress levels can also be high if you are trying to meet deadlines.

Well-paid

The starting salary is relatively high, and you can work your way up to a good wage with time and experience.

Good progression

There are good opportunities for promotion in aerospace engineering.

Can run your own business

You will be expected to keep up to date with new technology and developments in the industry.

Learn about more careers at <https://indigo.careers/>